TUESDAY, DECEMBER 18. 1739.

910 1400.

Vienna, November 28. O. S.

THE Prince of Saxe-Hilburghausen is not expected here till the 4th of next Month from Hungary. Some Days ago, a Man who was thought to be disturb'd in his Mind, going to the Dominicans Convent to Confession, and the Priest advancing to administer the Sacrament to him, he drew his Sword, and made a Push at his Throat; upon which the Man was immediately taken into Custody, and his Discourse plainly proves his Distraction. We hear no more of the Contagious Disemper in Hungary; but 'tis said, that a Disemper is got among the Cattle in the Neighbourhood of Luxembourg. Letters from Venice confirm, that there are Two great Factions at Constantinople, one for ratifying the Peace concluded with the Christian Powers, and the other for renewing the War. Mean Time it has been thought fit to suspend the Demolition of the Citadel of Belgrade. As to the Demolition of Meadia, the Advices differ. Some say it was begun after the Commandant who had refus'd to do it was arrested, and carried to Belgrade, by Order of the Bashaw of that Place; but other Advices say the contrary. We are now assur'd, that the Troops of the Electorates of Cologne and Munster are to remain in Hungary, in the Pay of the Emperor, and 'tis thought that those of some other Princes of the Empire will do the like. Four Regiments of Horse and Foot, are to march next Spring, to reinforce the Garisons of the Austrian Netherlands; but 'tis reported that 20000 Men will be then sent to Italy, partly at the Request of the Court of Turin, which, 'tis said, has chang'd its Principles since the last War; and will endeavour always to have neither French nor Spaniards for their Neighbours on this Side of the Alps. We are assur'd, that a Treaty of Offensive and Defensive Alliance is lately concluded between the Courts of Russia and Prussia, for the mutual Guarantee of the Places each has conquer'd from Sweden. Several other Alliances are talk'd of, which will not break out till the Measures which the French Court intends to take are more apparent. What will be the Fate of the Counts de Wallis and Neuperg cannot be foreseen; but if we may judge by the Emperor's late Speech to the States of Austria, as well as by his Commissorial Decree communicated to the Diet of the Empire, the Resentment of the Court against those two Generals seems as warm as at first.

Paris, Dec. 11. N. S. Letters from Petersburg say, that several Persons of the first Rank represented humbly to the Czarina, that if Asoph was demolish'd her Frontiers would certainly be in Danger; but their Remonstrances, tho' kindly receiv'd, had not the Success that was expected, the Czarina seeming resolv'd religiously to observe the Articles of a Treaty freely concluded, to give her Subjects Time to breathe, and not to run the Risk of engaging singly with all the Ottoman Forces.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, Dec. 10. The Peter and Rachel of Leith, Robert Angus, which was anchored in the Road (with Passengers and Coals for London) Wednesday Night last drove her Anchors till she struck upon Inchkeith, whereby she lost her Rudder and lost Post of her Keel; but at last getting clear, the Crew, with great Difficulty, got her wrought upon a land half-way 'twixt the Weems and Dyfart, and very narrowly escaped being dashed to Pieces upon a Rock called the Blair. 'Tis hoped she'll be got off again.

A Barque with Bear from Dunbar, — Jamieson, Master, was that Night stranded near Donnabristle. The Right Hon. the Earl of Moray immediately order'd all Assistance, in order to save the Cargo.

The Christian of Leith, Alex. Crawford, having sailed from the Frith for London before the Storm, and the Wind since standing mostly against him, 'tis thought she has steered to Northward: She has on board a large Quantity of the Silver that was fished from the Wreck at Zetland, and several Passengers. People are also in Pain for one of the Kinghorn Passage-boats, which had sailed with Goods for the North.

Saturday Morning last died at Dalkeith the Right Hon. William (Ramfay) Earl of Dalhousie, aged near 70, a Nobleman of great Honour and Probity, and endowed with many excellent Qualifications. He is succeeded in Honour and Estate by his Grandson Charles, a Minor.

FOREIGN PORTS.

Elfenor, Dec. 15. N. S. Since my last came in the Ships commanded by the following Masters, viz. On the 15th, Robert Walker, from Stockholm for London; Thomas Scott, from Riga for Amsterdam; and George Wright, from Danzig for Mull.

The outward-bound are all sail'd from hence with a favourable Wind at S. E. which continued till this Day, then it turned to S. W. with mild Weather, and remains.

HOME PORTS.

Dublin, Dec. 7. On the 1st arrived the Francis and Richard, Whaley, from Newfoundland: On the 2d, the Nelly, Forbes, from Whitehaven for Rotterdam; and the Betty and Peggy, Gardner, from Liverpool for the West-Indies: On the 3d, the Providence, Short, from Rotterdam. This Day sail'd the John, Parr, for Madeira and Virginia.

Leith, Dec. 6. Sail'd the Christian, Alexander Crawford, for London; John Pollock for Newcastle; the Jean and Janet, William Cleghorn, and the Agatha, Peter Graham, both for Gottenburgh.

The Two last Ships that went from this to London had on board the following Scots Manufactures, viz. 48,000 Skins dress'd in Alloo and Oil, 18443 Yards of Linnen and Cambrick, 996 Dozen of Linnen Handkerchiefs, 320 lb. of Thread, 2001 lb. of Snuff, &c.

Exmouth, Dec. 12. Arriv'd the Sir Brothers, Pennell, and the Sarah, Richard Withall, jun. from Newfoundland; and the Dispatch, Hooke, from Oporto. Sail'd the Caroline, With, for Spithead, to join the Convoy for Portsmouth; the Falcon Tender, for Plymouth, with upwards of 30 lifted Men for the Norfolk; the Juliana, Froud, for Maryland, with the Transports.

Pool, Dec. 15. Came in the Phoenix, Oliver, of London from Newfoundland: By a Letter dated the 16th ult. from Benjamin Winsor, to his Father in this Town, we are inform'd, That himself, and the rest of the Crew of the John and Mary, Bottley, were order'd away by Land under a Guard of Soldiers from Gijon to the Groyne; and after they had been confined there in the Guardhouse for two or three Nights, with their Feet fast in the Stocks, were put on board the St. Ann, a Spanish Ship of War of 70 Guns, to fight upon Occasion against their own Countrymen.

Cowes, Dec. 15. On the 14th came in the Eagle, Gill, from Cork, and sail'd the next Day for Pool and Newfoundland; and the Fox, Cumby, from London for Lisbon, and sail'd for Spithead. Wind N. W.

Southampton, Dec. 16. Arriv'd the Eliza, Mil-drum, and the Jane, Piton, from Guernsey; and the Hope, Perchard, from Jersey. Wind N. W.

Portsmouth, Dec. 16. His Majesty's Ship the Elizabeth, Prince of Orange, Sunderland, Superb, Warwick and Lion, are just under Sail, together with the Deptford, and other Store-ships for the Mediterranean: Also the Bosphorus, Purkes, the Caroline, With, both for Gibraltar; the Providence, Lindsey, for Oporto; the Providence, Garret, from Rotterdam for the Cape de Verd Islands; the Arklow, Goden, for Oporto. Also the other Ships which lay at the Mother Bank and Sakerbay.

Deal, Dec. 16. Wind N. N. W. Remains the Dunkirk Man of War, and the Dutch East India Ship; the Hibernia, Commerford, from Hamburg; is sail'd for Faro. Arriv'd the William, Cloyne, from Maryland.

Graveland, Dec. 16. Pass'd by the Jemima, Clara-bur, from Calais; the Constant Ann, Brown, from Riga; the Success, Coggin, from Guernsey; the Willing Mind, Gilbert, from Dunkirk; the Oldner, Simonds, from Norway; the Lady Sara Maria, Claes-ten, from Bilbao; and the Content, Hunter, from Guernsey.

LONDON.

Letters of December 4, N. S. from Venice say, that the Porte is apprehensive of Disturbances from Kouli Kan, and that it was scarce doubted but the Grand Vizier would be deposed and the Kaimakan advanced in his Room.

Those of the 5th ditto from Rome say, that the Pope is as well as can be expected for a Man of his Age, but that he keeps his Bed still, and lives upon half'd Chicken, minc'd Veal, and such light Sort of Diet.

A Mail arriv'd Yesterday from France, but brought nothing material.

A French Ship, bound from Bourdeaux with a valuable Cargo, is lost near Bourdeaux.

There is Advice from Dublin of the 8th Inst. that some Gentlemen in that City have receiv'd Letters that Admiral Vernon's Squadron arriv'd before the Havanna the 23d of October, that he summon'd the Governor to surrender, and upon his Refusal threw several Bombs into the Town, and was continuing to bombard it when the Letters came away.

'Tis said there's a Scheme on Foot by several Persons of Distinction at Dublin, for erecting an Obelisk in the Middle of St. Stephen's Green, to commemorate the Suppression of the horrid Rebellion in 1641.

Last Friday dy'd at Bristol of an Apoplexy Michael Pope, Esq; who was lately Sheriff of that City.

Thomas Borrow, Esq; eldest Son of Isaac Borrow, Esq; of Derby, is chosen Recorder of that Town, in the Room of William Fitzherbert, Esq; lately deceased; and Mr. Joshua Smith, an eminent Apothecary there is elected Alderman in the Room of the late Mr. Alderman Cockaine.

Thursday last the Shrewsbury Wherry was overlet about a Mile from Tewksbury, in a Storm which drove it up the Severn as far as Gloucester. The Owner's Son was drown'd, and all the Goods lost, but the Watermen sav'd themselves by Swimming, and the Passengers were taken up by a Fishing-boat.

Last Tuesday the Norwich Stage Coach was robb'd between Barton Mills and Newmarket, by a single Highwayman.

The Publick may judge of the Truth of the Paragraph in the London Evening-Post of Thursday the 14th Inst. dated from Reading of the 9th, by the following Facts, viz. That Mr. Manley did not ask any Person's Vote or Interest till after Mr. Portinger's Death; that the Interest which prevail'd on him to be Candidate was the same that chose Sir Owen Buck-ingham and his Son (whose Heiress he married) to represent them in several Parliaments, That he was recommended to the Voters by double the Number of Gentlemen of that Neighbourhood that appear'd against him; that the Receiver-General mentioned in the Paragraph hath a considerable Estate in the Borough; that Mr. Harveist is a great Dealer with the Traders of that Place; and that Mr. Manley is as independent as any Gentleman that appear'd against him. — If any golden Baits were held out, they were not in his Favour; and if the Prize has not cost too dear, why should there be any Complaint? which is commonly esteem'd the Privilege of the losing Side.

This Day the Right Hon. the Lord High Chancellor will hold the Fourth and Last General Seal after Michaelmas Term.

Friday last died, at his House at Westram, in the County of Kent, William Lawson, Esq; a Gentleman posses'd of a considerable Estate in the said County.

Last Sunday the Lady Dashwood, Wife to Sir James Dashwood, Bart. and Sister to her Grace the Duchess of Hamilton, was safely deliver'd of a Son and Heir at her House in Grosvenor's Square.

Yesterday the new-born Daughter of his Grace the Duke of Richmond was baptized at his Grace's House in Privy Garden by the Name of Margaret; the Lord Vere Besuclerk stood Godfather; the Lady Betty Germain and the Lady Margaret Bentinck Godmothers.

On Thursday next Thirty Days Subscriptions will be issued out at the Pay-Office at Whitehall to his Majesty's Forces, viz. from the 25th of December to the 23d of January next.

Yesterday the following Prizes were drawn in the Bridge Lottery, viz. No. 60347, 10001 No. 21921, 19144, each 100 l. No. 1131, 59298, 64481, 21778, 33693, 27500, 60840, 31698, 41295, each 50 l.

On Saturday last William Graves was committed to Newgate by Colonel De Veil for a Street Robbery upon Mr. John Threlkeld.—And Yesterday Susanna Jones was by the same Gentleman also committed to Newgate for the Murder of an Infant about Nine Weeks old, which was at a wife where she lodg'd, by cutting its Throat with a Razor from Ear to Ear. When she came before Col. De Veil, she gave no other Reason for that barbarous Action, than that she desired to put an End to her own Life, and thought that was the surest Way to do it. The Child proves to be the Son of Mr. Marfaut, Foreman of the Works at the Tower.

WHEREAS the MARGARET and ELISABETH, Capt. John Meyer Frederickson, bound from London to Hamburg, was sunk on the Sixth of November in the Swin, a little above the Buoy of the Low Middle. This is to caution and forewarn all Persons whatsoever, not to cut down or take away any of her Masts, Shrouds, or Rigging, nor to attempt to fish for, or take up any Goods out of the said Ship, or they will be prosecuted with the utmost Severity as the Law directs. And whosoever shall discover any Goods embezzled out of the said Vessel, upon Information and Recovery thereof, shall receive a suitable Reward from Messieurs Mello and Amfink, Merchants, in Scotch-Yard, Bush-Lane, London.

N.B. Any Person that is willing to undertake the Saving of the above-mentioned Ship and Cargo, by applying, as above directed, shall be treated with.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbatic Humors, tho' arrived to the highest and most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without any sensible Evacuation or the least Purgings, which by an unaccountable Mixture is generally advised, although always found rather to increase and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the too much lined and most pleasant Chymical DROPS:
WHICH, without the least Trouble,
Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, do at once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbatic Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in 3 Days time will be convinced, for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blisters, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, Swellings of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wasting Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy insinuates and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Disorders.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages (wherein proceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indispositions) no Doctor who ever other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, in that they besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Stages and by persistance, they also assuredly and immediately cure the Greenick in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and almost all other Chronic Diseases, (which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and stant Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and thereby prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Disorders.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and afford as taken, make the Patient pleasantly Lighter, brisk and Vigorous to administration, and good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to prevent a sound and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation these famous and pleasant Chymical Drops have so universally gained among Persons of all Conditions for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all its tickling Humours, and other Chronic Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, and under the same, and others under other Names: Be careful therefore not to be deceived; but be sure to have the Right, which is the Author's special Appointment, are to be had only at the following places, at the Two Blue Posts, in Haydon-Yard, in the City, at 6 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
